Beware – although this car park is marketed as the cheapest in Seaton, there are CCTV cameras which record vehicle registration numbers and the precise time of entry and exit to and from the car park. The operators are very zealous at issuing parking fines of £100.

Do not drive into, then out, of this car park without paying the minimum fee or you will be fined £100.

Devon County Council on Street Parking on the Seafront

The parking bays along the seafront in Seaton are owned by Devon County Council and there are payment machines located at regular intervals along the seafront. Charges apply between 1st April and 31st October, parking is free during the winter months. You will need to enter your car registration number into the machine, therefore the tickets are non-transferable.

Payment can be made by coins, or by debit or credit card via the RINGO app.

Between the hours of 9am and 6pm:

Up to 3 minutes	40p
Up to 1 hour	£1.50
Up to 2 hours	£4.00
Up to 3 hours	£6.00
Up to 4 hours	£8.00

Maximum stay is 4 hours - no return within one hour.

After 6pm parking is free

There are several dedicated disabled parking bays on the seafront which are free of charge for all blue badge holders, 24/7. No time restrictions.

Disabled blue badge holders can also park in the non-disabled bays and still benefit from free parking time unlimited, not restricted to 4 hours.
